

Press Release - July 28, 2010

John Crawford led the GOP race for Insurance Commissioner after July 27th's poles closed. He and opponent John Doak, a former State Farm insurance agent, will face each other in the primary final on August 24th. John thanks all of his supporters for their efforts and votes. Mark Croucher, the other candidate, stated that he would endorse John Crawford in the GOP finals.